

AN ICONIC ALPINE EXPERIENCE

The Alpina Gstaad is a five-star luxury hotel in Switzerland for the world's most discerning travellers. More than a place to stay in the Alps, it is an icon for Gstaad and mindful, conscious and responsible luxury. Situated in the heart of nature, the eco-friendly hotel combines Swiss traditions with state-of-the-art infrastructure and services. Sustainability and innovation are the pillars by which The Alpina Gstaad is driven. Local products and resources are integrated seamlessly throughout the hotel into creating a modern interpretation of Alpine chic.

The Alpina Gstaad is a member of the Preferred Hotels & Resorts Legend collection, the exclusive Virtuoso travel network, and Swiss Deluxe Hotels. The hotel has received the 'Out Now' certificate – the world's largest LGBT travel trade association – guaranteeing certain standards to LGBT guests. With its commitment to environmental awareness, the property is a member of the NOW Force for Good Alliance and certified Gold by EarthCheck

ROOMS & SUITES

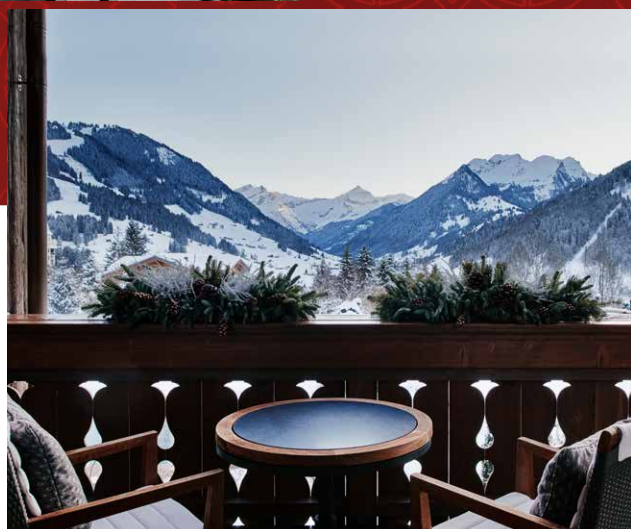

The 58 rooms and suites all reflect how Alpine authenticity meets Swiss luxury. Throughout, the region's heritage inspires the detail and careful craftsmanship. Classically carved ceilings and timber-clad walls create a cosy feel along with leather headboards, Swiss farmhouse-style cupboards and chests in the individually furnished rooms. Decorative accessories such as the traditional leather straps used to hold cowbells, are an iconic image for Gstaad, Saanenland. Yet the result is also fresh and modern, delivering an original Alpine chic aesthetic.

RESTAURANTS

Michelin-starred Executive Chef Martin Göschel supervises The Alpina Gstaad's 4 restaurants, Sommet (1 Star Michelin, 18 points Gault Millau), Megu (15 points Gault Millau), Swiss Stübli and Alpina Lounge & Bar, which draw upon the world's classic cuisines. Each is an ode to authentic food and cherishes the finest produce of the region, offering expressions of the chef's famous attention to detail and eye for perfection. With an eclectic collection of spirits, the bar offers an extensive range of cocktails from all-time classics to more avant-garde craft-cocktails and invites guests to enjoy the splendid view of the Swiss Alps.

Sommet

Sommet features a French-based cuisine that incorporates local and regional ingredients from the Saanenland. Set amidst the Bernese Oberland, Martin Göschel serves a menu that celebrates the richness of local produce amalgamating French classics with international flavours and distinct aromas from The Alpina Gstaad's own herbal garden. With one Michelin star and 18 Gault Millau points, Sommet's degustation menu displays Göschel's refined culinary art with a modern twist, creating an epicurean experience that tells a story. This cosy and elegant restaurant also boasts a superb selection of wines, including over 400 rare vintage bottles from across the world, hand-picked by head sommelier Luca Padovani. Sommet is the epitome of a timeless classic in a modern world.

Megu

Megu's cuisine is a modern take on authentic Japanese dishes that combines flavours from a variety of cuisines and are artfully presented. Head Chef Cristian Asato, Head Sushi Chef Tsutomu Kugota and their team are focused on sourcing the most pristine raw ingredients and incorporating unusual local flavours to the Megu culinary journey. Decidedly contemporary and full of surprises, Megu at The Alpina Gstaad has been awarded 15 Gault Millau points for its celebration of traditions, delicate signature creations and innovative cuisine.
