THE ALPINA
GSTAAD

THE ART OF ALPINE LIVING

The Alpina Gstaad is a five-star luxury hotel in Switzerland for the world's most discerning travellers, holding three Michelin Keys. More than a place to stay, and set in the heart of nature, it has become an icon of Gstaad and embodies the Art of Alpine Living through mindful, personal luxury. Its 55 rooms and suites blend Swiss sophistication with regional heritage, crafted with natural materials and artistry in every detail, offering guests space to unwind and reset.

The hotel's culinary world spans several distinctive restaurants, such as The Alpina Lounge & Terrace with its international cuisine, the vibrant Japanese flavours of Megu (16 Gault&Millau points), the Italian restaurant Monti (15 Gault&Millau points) and the cosy, traditional Swiss Stübli (available in winter). Local products are woven throughout the guest experience, and the property holds EarthCheck Gold certification as Switzerland's first five-star hotel to receive this distinction.

A central highlight is the 2,000-square-metre Six Senses Spa, with 12 treatment rooms, a Himalayan salt grotto, a hyperbaric chamber, cutting-edge biohacking facilities and holistic wellness concepts. Offering unique, expert-led treatments in a warm and secluded atmosphere, the spa features Asian-inspired design, tranquil water elements and soothing indoor and outdoor pools set in nature, mirroring the surrounding Alpine peaks.

The Alpina Gstaad is a member of the Preferred Hotels & Resorts Legend collection, the exclusive Virtuoso travel network, and Swiss Deluxe Hotels.

ROOMS & SUITES

The 55 rooms and suites reflect how Alpine authenticity meets Swiss luxury. Throughout, the region's heritage inspires every detail and the careful craftsmanship. Classically carved ceilings and timber-clad walls create a cosy feel along with leather headboards, Swiss farmhouse-style cupboards and chests in the individually furnished rooms. Decorative accessories, such as the traditional leather straps used to hold cowbells, have become an iconic symbol of Gstaad and the Saanenland. Yet, the result is also fresh and modern, delivering an original Alpine chic aesthetic.

RESTAURANTS

The Alpina Gstaad's four restaurants, Monti, Megu, Swiss Stübli and The Alpina Lounge & Alpina Terrace, draw inspiration from the world's classic cuisines. Each is an ode to authentic food and cherishes the finest produce of the region, offering refined culinary experiences with a strong attention to detail and a pursuit of perfection. With an eclectic collection of spirits, the bar offers an extensive range of cocktails from all-time classics to more avant-garde craft cocktails and invites guests to enjoy the splendid view of the Swiss Alps.

Monti

In December 2024, a new restaurant centred on a sharing-style dining concept made its debut. Guests are invited to enjoy Italian-inspired dishes, creating memorable moments over lunch or dinner. The menu highlights standout experiences such as elegant tableside preparations, enhancing both flavour and presentation. Monti's refined setting combines contemporary design with distinctive local charm, offering a space where exceptional cuisine meets a warm and inviting atmosphere.

The restaurant's design was conceived by interior architect Jakob Sprenger, guided by the creative vision of entrepreneur Antonia Crespí–founder of Tarmak22 and Casa Gstaad. The space blends contemporary aesthetics with the rich Alpine heritage of Gstaad. Sprenger, an Austrian designer based in Switzerland, is celebrated for his thoughtful approach to natural materials, crafting unique, tailor-made environments for each project.

Megu

Megu's cuisine is a modern take on authentic Japanese dishes that combine flavours from a variety of cuisines and are artfully presented. Head Chef and Sushi Master Tsutomu Kugota and his team are focused on sourcing the most pristine raw ingredients and incorporating unusual local flavours into the Megu culinary journey.

Decidedly contemporary and full of surprises, Megu at The Alpina Gstaad has received multiple awards for its celebration of tradition, delicate signature creations, and innovative cuisine. This dedication to excellence is reflected in its 16-point rating from Gault&Millau.

A delightful, intimate corner of Megu is dedicated to excellent and rare Japanese whiskies.

RESTAURANTS

The Alpina Lounge & Terrace

The Alpina Lounge represents a refreshing Swiss Alpine flair with floor-to-ceiling windows connecting the bar interior to the outdoor terrace. Featuring an eclectic collection of spirits from all over the world, the bar offers an extensive range of cocktails from all-time classics to more avant-garde craft cocktails.

The menu offers international flavours and a full range of culinary options, from hearty comfort dishes to lighter and health-conscious choices, including Mediterranean, vegetarian and vegan options.

Swiss Stübli

Swiss Stübli is the embodiment of the Alpine spirit that takes you back in time. The authentic Swiss restaurant exudes warmth, intimacy and character featuring original timepieces made by generations of local craftsmen.

Welcome to the Stübli, kick back and relax in this cosy space while indulging in some heart-warming Swiss specialties. In winter, it is an insider favourite for Swissness at its finest.

RESTAURANTS

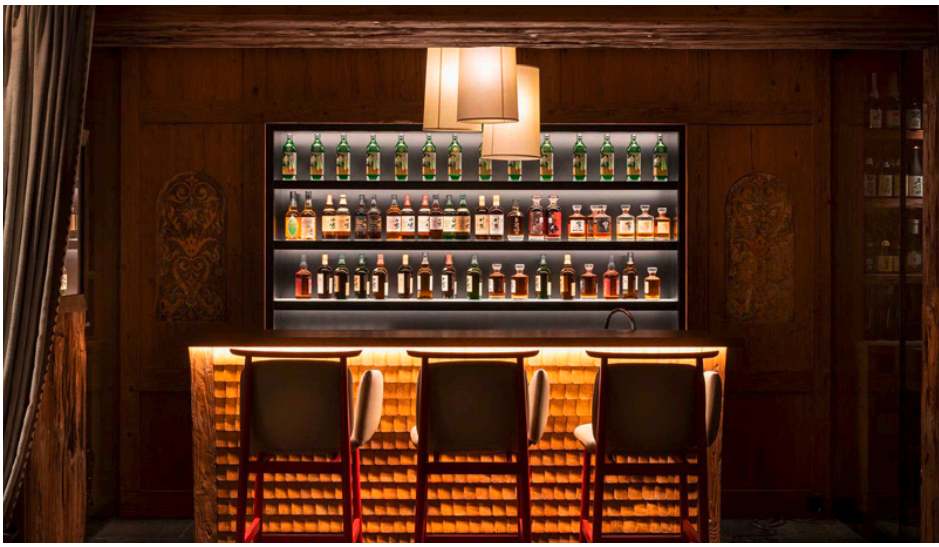

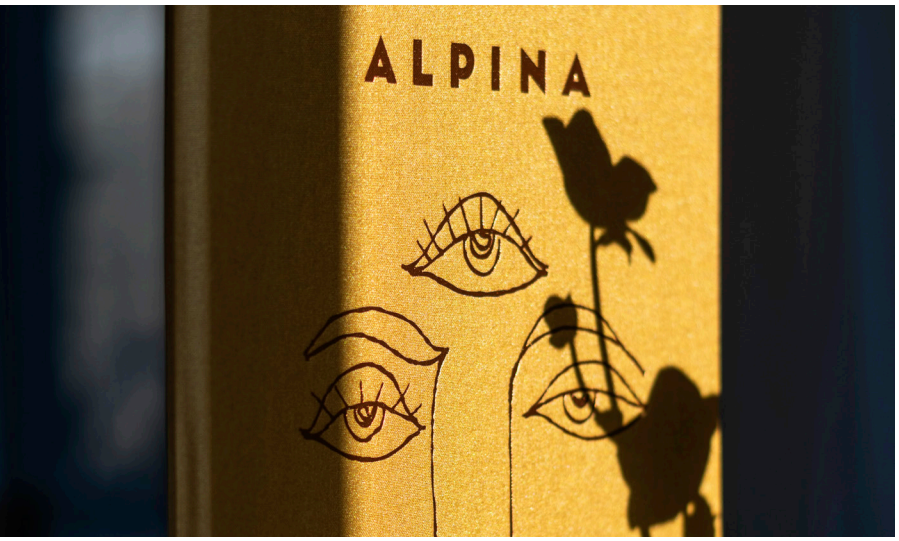

Cigar Lounge

Inspired by the 1930s chic of one of Havana's most famous establishments, our wide selection of cigars is for true aficionados.

Japanese Whisky Bar

Clad entirely in rustic stone and wood, this perfectly acclimatised room stores over 900 bottles sourced from the world's best winemakers – rarities of red and white wines, exquisite sparkling wines, champagnes and sake. The spotlight, however, is placed on the collection of over 40 renowned as well as rare Japanese whiskies.

Visual Identity

Adding to the recent renovations of the restaurant spaces, The Alpina Gstaad's dining experience has been complemented by a refreshed visual identity for its menus. This redesign was led by Creative Director Alexander Kellas, known for revitalizing the brand identities of Cipriani, Les Bains Paris, and Chateau Marmont in Los Angeles.

BUSINESS & PRIVATE EVENTS

The Alpina Gstaad is the ideal venue for business and private events. Whether for executive meetings, creative seminars, private events or celebrations, with our state-of-the-art infrastructure and our commitment to detail we help to create a memorable experience.

Salle Sarine

Centrally located on the hotel's entry level, the Salle Sarine ballroom's generous dimensions lend themselves to a wealth of event possibilities.

Meeting rooms

The Alpina Gstaad offers two elegantly designed boardrooms, each outfitted with a tailor-made boardroom table and premium executive seating. Both are equipped with state-of-the-art business technology.

Private Cinema

Our private Cinema seats up to 20 guests in plush executive seating. Featuring an extra-large screen, dramatic lighting, and state-of-the art sound, it seamlessly adapts for meetings, private screenings, or exclusive parties with professional equipment.

THE ALPINA GARDEN

The Alpina Garden offers an exceptional setting for private celebrations, exclusive receptions and special occasions in the open air. Surrounded by Gstaad's magnificent mountain scenery, it combines the beauty of nature with the refined elegance of The Alpina Gstaad.

SIX SENSES SPA

A central highlight is the 2,000-square-metre Six Senses Spa, with 12 treatment rooms, a Himalayan salt grotto, a hyperbaric chamber, cutting edge biohacking facilities and holistic wellness concepts. Offering unique, expert-led treatments in a warm and secluded atmosphere, the spa features Asian-inspired design, tranquil water elements and soothing indoor and outdoor pools set in nature, mirroring the surrounding Alpine peaks.
